Some fun things to do when at home

Make your own skeleton. Use a photo of your head, Q-Tips and glue, Use the Q-Tips as bones. You can also cut out people's heads from magazines to use.

VOLCANO PUMPKIN

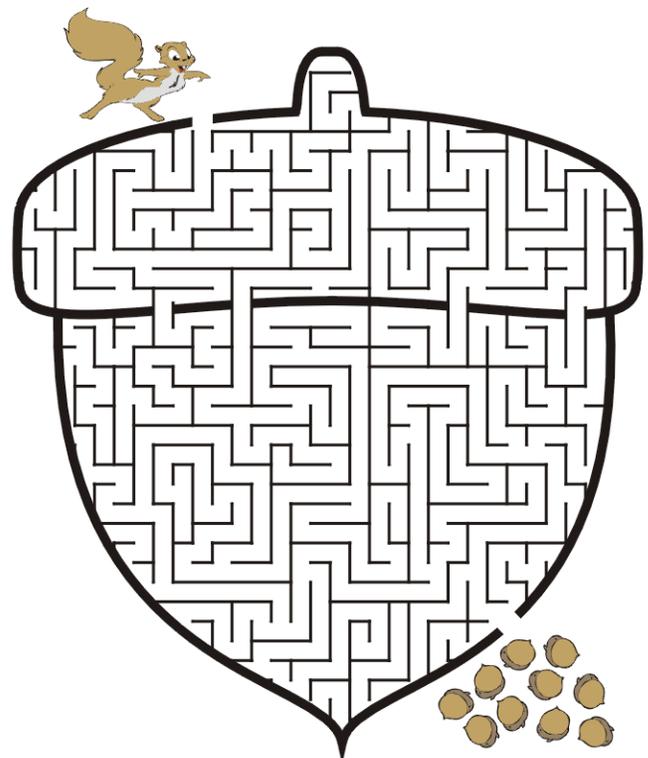

You will need:

One small pumpkin
baking soda vinegar
food coloring (optional)
dish soap water

First clean out your pumpkin. Add the following to your empty pumpkin: Warm water mixed with food coloring filled to about 3/4 full, 4-5 drops of dish soap, and a few tablespoons of baking soda. When you are ready for the eruption, add 1/4 cup of vinegar. If you carve a face on the pumpkin, it will ooze out the mouth.

Make a Monster Face

Kaleidoscope Art

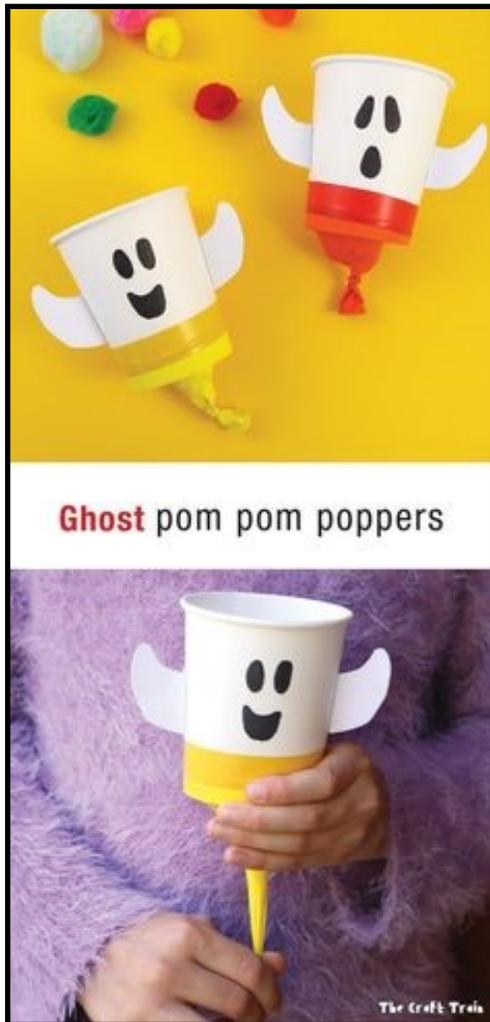

Using masking tape or any round item, trace around the round object and fill up the paper. Be sure to overlap the circles often. Use colored pencils and color in each shape differently.

Make some pumpkins to decorate your house. You will need some toilet paper rolls, some fabric, some leaves and sticks.

1. Lay your fabric out flat and put the toilet paper roll in the middle. Fold the fabric up so you know how big to cut it. It should be big enough to tuck into the toilet paper roll.
2. Break off a stick about 5-6 inches long and poke into the hole along with some leaves. Enjoy!

Cut the bottom out of a paper cup. Draw a face on the cup. Using a large balloon, put it over the bottom on the cup. Pull it up on the cup about 1 inch. Place pom poms into the cup. Pull back on the balloon and let go of the balloon, your pom poms should shoot out. Be careful and do not aim towards anyone.

This is a fun activity on a cold day. Have each person place a tissue on their head. Play some music so the kids can dance. The last person who has the tissue still on their head wins. Try some active songs like the Hokey Pokey.
